

Deacon's Beacons

Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. Ephesians 4:29

When you speak, the words you speak carry weight. Using the power of speech to lie to or degrade someone else is using it against its natural purpose. Natural Law tells us how we are to use the gifts that God has given us. Speech is to be used only to proclaim the truth. But even if what you want to say about someone negatively is true, you still do not have the right to use language as a weapon. The old adage says that if you cannot say something nice, say nothing. That is good advice for everyone.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
